

Austin Homeowners!

Is your property appraisal more than what you think your home is really worth?

Large developers and speculators have been getting big breaks on their property taxes for years. This year the Austin City Council sweetened the pot for million dollar homeowners with property tax breaks for "historic" homes. Meanwhile, Austin's middle and low-income residents get the shaft! Not this year!

Come to this workshop to learn how to file an effective tax protest

Saturday, May 1, 10 to Noon
Huston-Tillotson University
Dickey-Lawless Auditorium
7th & Chicon

This workshop is free. Call or email us for a reservation!

You can also set up a meeting in your neighborhood and we'll come to YOU!
Just let us know and we'll there!

Sponsored and paid for by ChangeAustin.org
Bringing Austin voters and local business to City Hall
PO Box 6718, Austin, TX 78762 * 512-535-0989 *
Contact@ChangeAustin.org

The Austonian
Austin's tallest building (@ 2nd & Congress) has been under-appraised by 40% for the last 4 years (see many, many more examples at CostofGrowth.com)